

Lucy Johnson Has Late Date In Madison, Wis.

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Lucy Baines Johnson, 16, daughter of President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, quickly forgot she was tired from the flight that brought her to visit University of Wisconsin freshman Jack Olson Wednesday night.

She and her party took a late auto ride, returning to her hotel at 1:10 this morning.

"We had a pizza," said Miss Johnson.

They also conspired in a little auto switching intrigue.

After her arrival she was whisked to her hotel, and said, "I have just finished my final exams and had a long trip. I'd like just to rest tonight."

Tour Of Campus

Olson, 18, from Maiden Rock, Wis., who has been Miss Johnson's escort since February, said, "We'll do whatever she wants." Olson met Miss Johnson while serving as a congressional page.

She did stay in her rooms about 90 minutes, chatting with Olson, his sister, Karen, 19, a sophomore at Wisconsin's River Falls State College, and her boyfriend, Jerry Sargent of Minneapolis. But at 10:30 p.m. the four young people and Mrs. James Cain, a longtime friend of the Johnson family, left in two cars for a tour of the Wisconsin campus.

When the party returned, Olson explained that Mrs. Cain had been dropped off and returned to the hotel. The four young people switched from the official car to a 1959 auto driven by a friend of Olson's, Doug Dague of Cumberland, Wis. Secret Service men followed their tour in another car.

Going To Rochester

After seeing the campus, they stopped at a popular pizza place near the university. Miss Johnson and Olson sat alone.

After the party returned, and neared Miss Johnson's room, she turned to Olson and said, "I don't have a key." But the door was opened from the inside.

Olson left a short while later, saying he and Miss Johnson planned to return to the campus today. He also said she may extend her stay through Friday, before going on to the Rochester, Minn., home of Mrs. Cain, whose physician husband is on the Mayo Clinic staff.

Highway Projects Over 10 Million

LANSING (AP) — Eight new highway construction projects costing more than $2 million have been added to the State Highway Department bid-opening at Lansing Feb. 5. Nine other projects costing $8.3 million were announced previously. The major contract added to the bid-opening is construction of three overpasses and related work on the Chrysler Freeway in Detroit.

NEW DISCUSSION about the possibility of the United States building a second canal in Central America has sprung up since violence flared recently in the Panama Canal Zone. Anti-Smoking Campaign Being Mapped In State

LANSING (AP) — Michigan health officials began constructing an anti-smoking campaign Wednesday with a boost from an advertising agency executive who urged a "positive approach" in educational materials directed against smoking.

A seven-point outline for action by State Health Commissioner Albert Heustis was the outcome of the "conference on the cigarette hazard" called by Gov. George Romney.

Some 40 representatives of state and voluntary agencies discussed control measures—including licensing all cigarette sellers, raising state tax on cigarettes and repealing existing age limit laws for smokers. But speaker after speaker emphasized a belief that the basic anti-smoking tool should be an educational campaign presenting facts on the hazards of smoking.

Prohibition No Solution

Romney spoke against prohibition of smoking. He called instead for concerted action by public, volunteer and private agencies to produce publicity against smoking similar to that supporting safety programs.

Robert Anderson of Bloomfield Hills, an advertising agency executive, criticized educational posters and pamphlets based on approaches such as those comparing lung cancer deaths with traffic deaths, and slogans like "For Heaven's Sake — Don't Smoke Now."

To have an effect on teenagers, Anderson said, a campaign must stress something positive for youth "right now — not something out in the future."

"You must make it admirable for people not to smoke," he stressed. He suggested a personal physical fitness campaign.

Bootlegging Avoided

Dr. Heustis, for discussion purposes, proposed increasing the state tax on cigarettes from seven to 10 cents a pack and suggested repealing laws against youthful smoking that have been proved unenforceable.

Deputy State Revenue Commissioner Donovan Rau argued that a tax increase would create an extremely difficult bootlegging problem. He said the ten cents a pack rate would be the highest in the U. S.

"We have trouble enough now," he added.

As an alternative, Rau proposed following the example of 30 other states and adopting a licensing plan covering all locations at which cigarettes are sold. He said the revenue department would support such a plan.

At $10 per location, he said, a license fee on some 40,000 retail sellers and about 37,000 vending machines in the state could produce $770,000 in revenue which, in turn, could be used for an enforcement or educational campaign.

Education Is Key

A related proposal was that licenses could carry a distance provision such as, "No cigarette vending machine shall be placed within one-half mile of a school."

Dr. Robert Rowe, president of the Michigan Health Officers Association, said departments in

Fisher Swaps Epithets With Richard Burton

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton were here today for a possible solution of their hopes to marry, but angry words from Eddie Fisher made their chances seem remote.

A duel of epithets and a mob scene were added to filmdom's most famous—and lengthiest—love epic Wednesday.

Said Burton: Fisher says publicly he wants to ease the way for Miss Taylor's divorce from him, but his demands "are in the realm of the fantastic." The singer should make his demands public, said Burton, or "live up to his public image" and do what he calls "the gentlemanly thing."

Said Fisher: "I have just read Mr. Burton's pronouncement on the proper behavior of a gentleman, and I am convinced, now more than ever before, that he deserves an Oscar for sheer gall."

"To set the record straight, I have not nor will I ever demand any money from Elizabeth. On the other hand, I have no intention of surrendering her and Mr. Burton the property which I own."

"I have never advised one way or the other on Mr. Burton's treatment of his wife and I would thank him to refrain from commenting about my action concerning my wife."

"I hardly think that Mr. Burton is the one to lecture on morals, integrity, and honesty to me or to anyone else."

Miss Taylor and Burton landed their chartered DC3 at Los Angeles International Airport Wednesday night and descended into a seething, shouting throng of newsmen. Airport police tried to form a circle around the pair, but microphones and cameras were pushed at them from all directions.

"Get me out of here," Miss Taylor said fearfully.

"Where is the way out?" said her fifth-husband-to-be.

Muskegon's Ban On Smoking Has First Violators

MUSKEGON (AP) — The first violators of Muskegon Township's 13-day-old juvenile smoking ban are awaiting action in Probate Court.

Township police said they spotted two youths, 15 and 16, smoking cigarettes near Orchard View high school Wednesday. Police referred the cases to the court.

The township ordinance carries a $10 fine or a 5-day jail term for youths under 18 caught smoking in public places.

Armed Forces To Be Told Of Smoking Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The top doctors of the Army, Navy and Air Force have recommended steps aimed at discouraging smoking among the 2.7 million men and women in uniform, it was learned today.

There would be no attempt to prohibit cigarette smoking, The Associated Press was told, but the military surgeon general proposed:

1. An educational program intended to point out to all service people the potentially harmful effects of smoking.

2. An end to service participation in what one surgeon general called "promotional schemes." Under this heading, he included gifts of cigarettes to military hospitals.

The surgeons general met Wednesday with Dr. Shirley C. Fisk, the Defense Department's health director. They discussed the Public Health Service's recent report linking cigarette smoking with lung cancer and various other life-shortening diseases.

Jack Ruby Test To Be Secret

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The time, place and extent of the psychiatric examination to be given Jack Ruby, slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, remain a professional secret.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown named Dr. R. L. Stubblefield of the Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, Dr. John T. Holbrook of Beverly Hills Sanitarium and Clinic in Dallas, and Dr. Milton Towler of the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston as the three psychiatrists to examine the 52-year-old night club operator.

Judge Brown said it would be up to the three psychiatrists to conduct the tests and that he did not know specifically what the examination would include.

"I am under instructions from Judge Brown to make no announcement as to what the tests will include, where they will be given or when they will be given," Dr. Stubblefield said late Wednesday.

Earlier, Dr. Holbrook said he did not know when or where the tests would be held. Asked if they would be extensive, he said "I hope so."

Kennedy Scores Success In His Asian Mission

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's Malaysia mission was crowned with success today. Indonesia and Malaysia agreed to stop the fighting along their Borneo border and to join the Philippines in a conference of foreign ministers.

After announcement of the agreement, Kennedy flew to Bangkok, Thailand, for three hours of conferences with Thai officials. He was to go on to London to give British officials a review of his talks in Asia.

The attorney general said he hoped the foreign ministers' meeting would lead to a new summit conference of the principals in the Malaysia dispute—Indonesian President Sukarno, Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia and Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal.

Some Not Optimistic

However, some senior diplomats in Jakarta were not overly optimistic that another summit conference would produce a final solution to the crisis resulting from federation of the former British territories in Southeast Asia and Sukarno's announced determination to smash it.

Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio, appearing at a joint news conference with Kennedy, said the cease-fire in the undeclared guerrilla war in Borneo probably could be implemented within a week. He implied that Indonesian regular army troops would prevent raiders crossing from Indonesian Borneo into the Malaysian jungles of Sabah and Sarawak states.

There was no immediate comment from the British Embassy. Britain is pledged to defend Malaysia, where it retains bases, and several thousand British and British-hired Gurkha troops are in North Borneo, Sukarno, ambitious for Indonesia to be the dominant power in Southeast Asia, contends that Malaysia is a device to preserve Britain's colonial influence.

The Philippines also has opposed Malaysia but only in the diplomatic field and without the threats of violence that came from Jakarta. Philippine opposition is based on that nation's claim to Sabah, the former territory of British North Borneo.

Kennedy said Sukarno, Macapagal and Rahman all had agreed they were ready for new talks without preconditions. But he said all three also had agreed that new three-power talks were likely to fail unless a cease-fire was implemented.

One precondition that was dropped was Rahman's demand that Indonesia and the Philippines recognize his country. Kennedy said all three leaders had agreed not to let this point interfere with a conference, and Subandrio said it would be the chief question for summit discussion.

Saturn 1 Will Lead World In Rocket Power

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — World leadership in rocket power may be the prize next Monday when the United States plans to launch the Saturn 1 on its first two-stage test flight.

If all goes well, the rocket will lift a 37,700-pound satellite nearly three times heavier than any previous payload.

The satellite, mostly dead weight with no scientific value, will dwarf the largest payloads orbited by the Russians — Sputniks 7 and 8 which weighed 14,292 pounds each. The heaviest American space payload weighed 10,200 pounds.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration today disclosed details of the Saturn 1, which has been on a launching pad here since last August, waiting out months of checkout and several weeks technical delay.

The rocket stands 164 feet tall and fully fueled weighs 562 tons. The Statue of Liberty is 151 feet and weighs 227.5 tons.

The first stage, 21.5 feet in diameter, has an eight-engine powerplant which will generate 1.5 million pounds of thrust about 34 million horsepower.

This is designed to lift the rocket above the earth's atmosphere. At an altitude of 45 miles, the real key to Saturn 1's power flashes to action: a second stage with six engines that burn liquid hydrogen and produce 90,000 pounds of thrust. Hydrogen delivers 40 per cent more punch than fuels like the high-grade kerosene in the first stage. It generates a tremendous kick when ignited in the vacuum of space.

The second stage will be flown for the first time Monday. Four earlier flights used only the first stage.

Experts believe a good test will give the United States a booster lead over Russia. Best estimates place the thrust of the big Soviet space rockets at between 1 and 1.2 million pounds. There is no evidence of their progress with liquid hydrogen.

Work Wound Up On 11 Billion Tax Slash Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee aims to complete work and vote final approval today of the $11 billion tax cut bill. Debate by the full Senate would begin next week.

President Johnson has urged quick passage of the measure, saying it will help rocket the economy to record heights this year.

The committee vaulted a high hurdle Wednesday, approving unanimously the rate reductions for individuals that had been written in the bill originally passed by the House.

The senators made only one change. They adopted President Johnson's proposal to put the new 14 per cent withholding rate into effect as soon as the measure becomes law.

The House version, which contemplated enactment in 1963, would have dropped the withholding rate from 18 per cent to 15 per cent in 1964, and then to 14 per cent in 1965.

After it became obvious that reductions could not become legally effective until perhaps March, Johnson asked that the two-steps drop in the withholding rate be junked and the 14 per cent rate be established immediately.

The total cut for individuals is estimated at $9 billion when the measure takes full effect.

The individual rate cuts in the bill would mean a tax cut averaging about 10 per cent for all taxpayers. It would be somewhat more than this for those in the bottom and top brackets, less through the middle ranges.

Two-thirds of the rate cuts would be effective for 1964, with the reductions made retroactive to Jan. 1, and one-third in 1965.

A new range of 14 to 70 per cent would be substituted for the 20 to 91 per cent rates of present law.

As it passed the House, the bill called for ever-all tax cuts for individuals and corporations totaling $11.1 billion. Congressional experts said this now had been boosted to about $11.5 billion by a series of changes made by the Finance Committee.

Eastern Daylight Time Proposed For Michigan

LANSING (AP) — A bill to put Michigan on eastern daylight time between April and October was introduced Wednesday in the House.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Joseph Gillis, D-Detroit, would put Michigan on daylight time from 2 a.m. of the first Sunday in April until 2 a.m. on the last Sunday in October.

Gillis said his bill is supported by golfers and organizations interested in outdoor recreation, but he expects opposition from rural interests.

It provides that in counties of the Upper Peninsula west of the 87th meridian, the boards of supervisors would be able to vote on whether to adopt central standard time.

Gillis said this would enable those counties to operate on the same time as neighboring Wisconsin, which is on central time.

Noted Attorney Louisell Taken Ill In Court

DETROIT (AP) — Attorney Joseph W. Louisell, noted for his handling of criminal cases, collapsed in federal court Wednesday and was taken to Grace hospital.

Louisell's physician said the lawyer's condition was not considered critical. He complained of a pain in the chest while serving as defense counsel in a bankruptcy-fraud case. A report on a diagnosis was pending.

Louisell, 48-year-old father of 10 children, lives in Grosse Pointe Park.

Family Escapes In Fog Out Of East Germany

HANNOVER, Germany (AP) — A family of four made it to West Germany by crossing the frozen Upper Elbe River on the border with East Germany, customs officials said Wednesday.

The Tuesday night escape took place under cover of thick fog. The family brought some possessions across in a sled and a hand cart.

Castro Supports Kremlin In Rift With Red China

MOSCOW (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro has put Cuba behind Premier Khrushchev in his ideological dispute with Communist China following a Soviet pledge to pay more than $2.6 billion for Cuban sugar in the next six years.

Castro's support of the Kremlin was proclaimed in a joint Cuban-Soviet communique issued Wednesday night to mark the end of the Cuban leader's 10-day visit to Moscow. Castro is with Khrushchev on a hunting holiday in the Ukraine.

Castro praised Moscow's policy of peaceful coexistence, called the treaty limiting nuclear testing "a step forward peace and disarmament" and supported the Soviet Communist party's measures "to remove the existing differences and strengthen the unity and cohesion of the ranks of the international Communist movement."

The statement appeared to end Castro's flirtation with Red China, which takes opposite positions on all these key issues.

Like Communist China, Cuba has refused to sign the Moscow-supported test-ban treaty. This has annoyed the Soviets in view of their heavy economic aid to the Caribbean nation.

While the communique gave no specific Castro pledge to sign the treaty, the Cuban government praised "the successes achieved by the Soviet Union in the struggle for ending nuclear tests and the agreement to keep nuclear weapons off vehicles in orbit."

Khrushchev renewed his promise to protect Cuba from any U.S. invasion "with all means at its disposal." The last such promise was made several weeks ago at a Kremlin ceremony marking the fifth anniversary of the Cuban revolution on New Year's Day.

The joint communique also endorsed Panama's efforts to seek revision or abrogation of the 1903 Panama Canal Treaty and denounced the "aggressive policies" of the United States.

However, Castro added his government is prepared to re-establish "good neighbor relations" with the United States on "the basis of peaceful co-existence of states with different social systems."

National Bank Promotes Two

Changes in officer rank at the Escanaba National Bank has brought advancement to two men, it is announced by Stack Smith, president. The annual meeting of the stockholders and of the board of directors was held on Tuesday.

W. J. "Jess" Lavolette was named vice president and cashier. He previously was cashier.

Lowell S. Hebbard, previously manager of the Rapid River Branch, continues in that position plus the office of assistant cashier.

The Escanaba National Bank's full officer complement:

Stack Smith, president; E. L. Moersch, executive vice president; M. N. Smith, assistant executive vice president; Lavolette vice president and cashier; William Leiper, assistant cashier; E. J. Bonifas, assistant cashier and branch manager.

Lavolette is a long-time employee of the Bank, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin School of Banking, and specializes in loans and investments.

Hebbard was formerly employed with Inland Lime and Stone Co., and the Harnischfeger Corp., as accountant, and has managed the Rapid River Branch Bank since its opening in 1960.

Hermansville Sportsmen Meet

HERMANVILLE — Two films, "Fabulous Fishing in Panama" and "Green Bay Packers," from the film library of the Miller Brewing Co. were shown to members of the Hermansville Sportsmen's Club at the Community Club recently.

The first meeting of the year brought out discussions on projects for 1964. The club discussed in detail the possibility of a shooting range for members.

The continued improvement of the Hermansville Lake for swimming and fishing will be started in the spring. Additional plantings of legal and sub-legal northern pike is expected to stock the lake.

The club enjoys a membership of 40 and the new membership drive will be under way soon.

Guests at the meeting were members of the Menominee Sportsman's Club.

Invite Smokers To Kick Habit

Smokers, who want to, are being told they can kick the nicotine habit under a special five-day plan to be conducted Feb. 2-6 in the Delta County Building.

The Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking was developed by Dr. J. Wayne McFarland and his pastor Elman J. Folkenberg of South Lancaster, Mass. Since then they have conducted the plan in cities across the nation and have found it more than 70 per cent effective.

"This is not a crusade against tobacco nor is it a religious program" explained John Erhard, who with his brother, Dr. Stewart Erhard, will be conducting the program here. "We say that if your doctor has told you to stop smoking, then here's the way to do it."

The program to be conducted in the Circuit Court Room of the Delta County Building, 310 Ludington, will consist of regular group therapy sessions and a daily personal control program for home or work. The first session will be Sunday, Feb. 2, at 7:30 p. m. and will continue at the same time each night through Thursday.

"By the third night, 50 per cent of the audience will have lost the desire to smoke and by the fifth night many others will have lost the craving," Pastor Erhard predicted. "We use no gimmicks."

Admission to the group therapy will be by reservation only since the attendance is limited to about 100. There will be no charge and no offering.

The plan developed by the medical and ministerial departments of the Seventh-day Adventist church, is a public service in connection with the Delta County Cancer Society and Health Department for the improvement of the health of the community. Phone ST6-4730 for reservations.

Flat Rock 4-H Program Grows

The Flat Rock 4-H Club has become a beehive of activity and as the result the membership has increased from 40 members last spring to a present total of 70. This is the first year the club has been organized.

Members of the club are in the 10 to 14-year-old age group. They meet once each month for their business sessions at the Flat Rock School. Their workshop sessions are held at the homes of the various leaders.

During the past summer the club members took part in gardening, flower gardening and livestock projects. They also formed four baseball teams under the 4-H recreational program.

Summer exhibits of the club were on display at the Upper Peninsula State Fair held in August. All their projects, which include electrical and woodcraft, will again be shown at their local achievement day programs in April.

Leaders of the Flat Rock 4-H Club include: Robert Groos, Robert A. Jensen, Walter Marcella, Marvin Cartwright and Ralph McGeary. Junior leaders are Kenneth Roberts, Duane Chenier, Kenneth Gustafson and Joseph Newhouse.

rabbis, priests and pastors to speak out against smoking and declared health officials should seek help through the churches.

The seven-point program incorporated recommendations for new committees to be formed to investigate present anti-tobacco laws and to coordinate anti-smoking activities of interested agencies.

Members of the health professions were asked to spread the non-smoking message "by precept and example."

The conference recommended against retail and vending machine sales of cigarettes in state health department buildings and in hospitals. Dr. Heustis said he already had cut off vending machine sales in the health department units.

Delta's Relief Still Declines

Delta County's welfare picture continues to brighten.

The Michigan Department of Social Welfare reported that in November there were 97 direct relief cases compared with 137 a year previous and that spending was down from $10,360 to $8,563.

Delta County Welfare Director Lyle Plowman reports that in December direct relief cases were 131, compared with 154, a year ago, and that spending was down from $12,557 to $10,546.

Most direct relief cases are supplements for nursing home care, said Plowman, and not sudden hardship cases. He reported that there are about a dozen employables now on the direct relief rolls in the county and that about half of them are on works projects like Fair grounds maintenance and school crossing patrols.

Woods work is active and easing the demand for unemployment aid, he said.

In November five of the 15 Upper Peninsula counties had more direct relief cases than a year ago and four of them spent more than a year ago. The total number of cases was 1,465 compared with 1,660 a year ago and spending was $102,891, compared with $115,888.

Counties with fewer cases were Delta, Dickinson, Gogebic, Houghton, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette and Ontonagon.

Counties with more cases were Alger, Chippewa, Keweenaw, Menominee and Schoolcraft, and Baraga and Iron were unchanged.

UPCAP, Nathan Get $110,000 To Finish Program

The Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems has been given federal funds to complete a second year of work to promote the economy of the Upper Peninsula.

The second phase of the program is a do-or-die project which will determine whether UPCAP, created by the Boards of Supervisors of the Upper Peninsula counties with the aid of Michigan State University, has gathered enough strength to survive and be effective on its own means.

The Area Redevelopment Administration gave a $125,000 contract to Robert Nathan Associates, economic advisors of Washington, D.C., a year ago on application of UPCAP. This program of technical assistance to U.P. economic projects developed by UPCAP expires at the end of February after a month's extension from the original 18 months of the contract.

$110,000 Allotted
Senators Pat McNamara and Philip A. Hart announced today that the Area Redevelopment Administration had allotted another $110,000 to complete UPCAP's program of economic development.

The second phase financing will provide $60,000 for Nathan Associates, who maintain a U.P. technical assistance office in the State Office Building in Escanaba, to complete and implement its U.P. economic programs in the next 6 months.

This phasing out program, said Joseph Revis, senior economist of Nathan's technical assistance staff, will start in February to recruit two executives of UPCAP to be trained by Nathan to take over UPCAP's program and direct it for a year.

These two officers, now being sought, will be on Nathan's payroll for the 6 month training period ending July 31. They will be a small industry specialist and developer, and an economist-engineer skilled in studies of sales and other economic survey fields.

"Stimulate Economy"
Today's ARA allocation also provides $50,000 for UPCAP to finance one year program of economic development projects following up the Nathan Associates program of U.P. technical assistance on economic development. After the year financed by ARA, UPCAP, with a current budget of $3,000 from the U.P. Boards of Supervisors, would have to pay its executives from its own means.

A statement by Senators McNamara and Hart said "The purpose of the program is to increase the industrial and recreational investments and in other ways stimulate economic development of the area."

UPCAP and the Nathan technical assistance mission have organized together or singly or helped effect several major economic development projects in the Upper Peninsula.

A major victory of U.P. aid to an ARA project was the Copper Harbor Corp. resort project on the Keweenaw Peninsula, where a 20-year, 4-per cent ARA loan of $625,000 has assured a major resort development to cost a total of $1,407,900. The local Development Corp. will supply $142,500, the banks $350,000 and the developer, Bruce Reid of Milwaukee and his associates, $290,400.

UPCAP Programs
UPCAP projects include a lake fisheries development program, a U.P. tourism promotion project to create pilot developments under guidance of Michigan State University's tourism specialists; an ores research project at Michigan Tech and a forest resource survey under direction of the U.S. Forest Service for which part of the aerial data already has been collected, with completion of flights planned in 1964.

UPCAP's officers are Lynn Sandberg of L'Anse, chairman; Harold Dettman, St. Ignace, vice chairman; Harold Vanlerberghe, Escanaba, secretary; Donald Munro, Ontonagon, treasurer.

Abram Snyder, of MSU is staff secretary; Aarne Ervast, Laurium, of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion heads the Technical Committee and Tom Angeli, Iron River, is vice chairman. Angeli is the field representative of ARA in the Upper Peninsula.

Recreation Has Soil Use Gains

The increasing influence of recreational values in land management was evident Wednesday night in both the program and audience at the annual meeting of the Delta County Soil Conservation District in the Legion Hall at Perkins.

The turnout of 180 was one of the largest in the history of the organization, which is devoted to useful management of the soil and preservation of soil fertility.

The annual reports by the directors, Jerry VanDamme, Rock; Octave Carignan, Cornwell; Llewellyn Larson, Danforth and Elmer Lepisto, Rock, showed gains in construction of wildlife and farm ponds, a lag in ditching and tree planting.

The directors agreed to stress tree planting and ditching, which latter was impeded by the 1963 drought, in the District's 1964 program.

Chairman Daniel Barron presided at the program and the Perkins School Band played several pieces.

Guests included Del Meister, area conservationist, Marquette; Wendell Sandahl, director of the Menominee County Soil Conservation District, and the State Soil Conservation Committee.

Mel Taylor, Schaffer poultryman, was elected a director to succeed Barron, who did not seek reelection. Lepisto was re-elected to a three year term.

Irwin Ten Haken, District soil conservationist, showed colored pictures of pond construction and other soil structure work in the district and moderated a panel discussion on pond management. Panelists were Clifford Long, Escanaba District fisheries supervisor of the Conservation Department, John Niemi, Rock; Roy Bergstrom, Bark River and Harold Meiers, Jr., of Soo Hill.

The Womens Auxiliary prepared the lunch.

Death Takes Mrs. Nicholson

Mrs. Hannah E. Nicholson, 321 N. 10th St., died at 12:30 a.m. today at her home. She was 91.

Mrs. Nicholson was born in Bjornor, Norway, Dec. 15, 1872 and she had lived in Escanaba 36 years. Her husband, John, died in 1943.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Albert (Sadie) Larson, Escanaba; four sons, Chris, Escanaba, Ralph, Gladstone, and Peter and Elmer, Escanaba; eight grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Oliver Pederson and Mrs. Fred Bjurman, Stonington.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home after 4 p.m. Friday. Complete services will be held at the funeral home chapel at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. Gordon Thorpe of Immanuel Lutheran Church will officiate. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Rumbling Heard

IRON RIVER—After more than six months of quiet, reports of rumblings in the Riverside area were received last week by Reino Anderson, county mine inspector.

It marked the first time since June that rumblings were reported by residents of the city, following the scare of caving over the old Delta mine workings, which was caused by similar reports, and resulted in a temporary halting of railroad ore hauls across US-2.

Larson Named News Editor

Appointment of Charles H. Larson, former Escanaba newspaperman, as news editor of the Lansing State Journal has been announced by Louis A. Weil Jr., publisher.

Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Larson of Rock has been city editor of the State Journal. He succeeds Kenneth L. Gundersman as news editor. Gundersman, also a former Escanaba newspaperman, recently was appointed managing editor of the Journal.

A third former Escanaba newspaperman, William J. Duchaine, is a feature writer on the Lansing newspaper.

City Proposing Precinct Change

Studies toward a reduction of the number of voting precincts and polling places in Escanaba from nine to seven is continuing under the direction of City Clerk Don Guindon, who said he is hopeful the change may be put into effect this year in advance of the August primary.

To effect the proposed change it will be necessary for the city to amend its precinct ordinance. The Council will give the proposed revision first reading at its first meeting in February, and second reading and adoption at the meeting Feb. 20.

Precinct boundary changes will be necessary and before an election in which the new precincts are in effect all voters will be notified if their polling place is changed. In addition a map defining the new precinct boundaries will be published.

City Manager George Harvey, in an explanation to the City Council, said it appears that the Delta County Court House will be used as the polling place for a new precinct combining the present No. 1 and most of No. 2 and No. 3.

It is also proposed to combine into one precinct the present Precincts 7 and 8 on the North Side, with the polling place at the Webster School.

Polling places will remain the same for Precincts 5 (Junior High School), No. 4 (Jefferson School) and No. 6 (the Lemmer School) although some change may be made in the boundaries.

Bay de Noc Community College will be the polling place for two precincts, since it is proposed to divide the Present Precinct into two. The west side of the college building would be for one precinct, the east side of the building for the other.

The use of the fire station at the City Hall and on the North Side will be eliminated. They are considered inadequate and crowded.

Pastors To Meet At NMU Feb. 17

"The Minister Looks at Himself" is the theme of the sixth annual Upper Peninsula Pastors' Conference which will be held on Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 17 and 18 at Northern Michigan University, Marquette. The conference is sponsored annually by the Michigan Council of Churches, Northern Michigan University, and the University of Michigan.

Major speaker will be Dr. Carroll Wise, professor of pastoral psychology and counseling and director of student counseling, Garrett School of Theology, Evanston, Ill. Other speakers will be Dr. Howard Y. McClusky, professor of educational psychology, University of Michigan and Dr. David N. Dixon, chairman of the English Department, Northern Michigan University.

Many United States agricultural products are bartered for strategic defense materials, about $1.5 billion worth since 1954.

Tax Clinic

MARQUETTE—Five Internal Revenue tax specialists will conduct the one-day Small Business Tax Clinic at Northern Michigan University Wednesday, Jan. 29. The workshop will emphasize new depreciation guidelines, expense accounts and investment credit among other topics.

Who's Really Rich

Michigan is properly regarded by the nation as one of its rich states. It pays a whopping big hunk of the federal tax load and its automotive manufactures are known around the world.

It is one of the states that gives more to the federal government than it gets back, a situation that Dixie states dislike as much as carpetbaggers.

Michigan, while rich and progressive—it has initiated much of America's industrial age economics and social structuring because of its pioneering in mass production and automotive industry—bears no proud national reputation for political sagacity.

Its Republican and Democratic voters are in near balance, with the Democrats holding an edge and an ascendancy, so the state is not stable politically in the same way as are Southern states which have voted Democratic since the Civil War and which have built up seniority positions in Congressional committees which give the South veto power over national legislation.

When Michigan's members of Congress set out to get something for their state from the federal feed bag, the results are so modest that they make our efforts look bush league compared with those of the South. The Upper Peninsula is designated by the Federal Government as a problem area and it gets relief work in the federal forests to ease its large unemployment while in the South ports are created far from the sea and there are other enormously expensive public works to bring economic vigor to that area.

The third of Michigan north of Mackinac is in great need of economic development but when the federal government is spending money, the U.P. seems to be quarantined. It looks longingly toward huge, rich Texas as "having it made" and then it reads, as it did in Time magazine, about Governor Tom Connally and Texas and it learns some facts of political life.

"Governor Connally," says Time, "has faced plenty of problems. For all its talk about frontier self-reliance, Texas is over-dependent upon the Federal Government, which pumps some $3.5 billion into the state annually—a sum greater than its agricultural income."

"It has 43 active military installations, a figure exceeded only by California. Some 99,000 airmen (14.8 pct. of the U.S.-based Air Force) and 70,000 Army troops (11.4 pct.) are stationed there."

"Cotton men roll up to Federal Government offices in Cadillac to vote for cotton subsidies. Elevators bulge with government-stored grain."

"Declares University of Texas Historian Dr. Joe Frantz: 'The Westerner can rear up on his hind legs and shout that he and he alone wrested that land from the desert or wind or Indian or whatever possessed it. But the truth is that from start to finish he was subsidized from his brogans to his sombrero.'"

Michigan's management of its development shouldn't rely on government any more than Texas should, but it should certainly consider the drain on its resources for development elsewhere and the equity of the national distribution.

Husband Data

Now is the time for all smart girls to come to the aid of themselves, for things are likely to get a bit more competitive over the next couple of years.

Reason is that girls generally marry before they are 20, while most boys marry between 22 and 23. This means that girls born in the postwar baby-boom years of 1946 to 1949 will be looking for prospective bridegrooms among the young men born in the leaner war years of 1942-45.

According to statisticians at the University of Dayton, by 1966 girls in the one category will outnumber eligible men in the other category by 364,764. In 1967 it will be a little better, with a surplus of only 316,629 girls.

Remember, the next Leap Year won't be until 1968.

The Doctor Says:

Tuberculin Test Shows Immunity

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Q—Does the tuberculin test show whether the tubercle bacillus is present anywhere in the body?

A—The tuberculin test shows whether or not a person has had enough contact with the tubercle bacillus to build up an immunity to it. If a person's test is positive, it may mean that he has some active tuberculosis, but is in the process of overcoming it. Far more often, it means that the battle has been won and all the soldiers have gone back to their families. In medical school we used to say, "Give us this day our daily tubercle bacillus." Mild exposure, if repeated often, is the best way to keep up the body's resistance to the disease. But even the resistant person can get the disease as a result of an overwhelming exposure. Fortunately we now have effective antituberculosis drugs that greatly facilitate the treatment of this disease.

Q—What would cause me to continue to have a sour stomach even after surgical removal of part of my stomach?

A—Unless you have a peptic ulcer, in which case the acid-forming glands in the stomach would put out too much acid, an overabundance of acid in itself would not cause any symptoms. On the other hand, you regurgitate sour stomach contents after meals, this would taste sour even if the concentration of the acid were normal. The cause of such regurgitation may be eating too fast, worry or nervous tension, failure to chew your food thoroughly or an allergy to one of the foods eaten. There are many antacids that you can take for temporary relief. If you have a great deal of trouble, you should have your doctor determine steps to eliminate it.

Q—You recently said that a tumor of the thymus is sometimes the cause of myasthenia gravis. What kind of test is given to determine whether you have a tumor of the thymus?

A—The thymus is a gland of uncertain function. It is now believed to be an important factor in helping the child develop immunity to various infections. It attains its largest size at puberty, after which it dwindles and almost disappears. It is located between the thyroid and the heart. Unless a thymus tumor is very large, it is likely to go unrecognized. When the thymus is enlarged, an X-ray of the chest may reveal displacement of other structures in that region. Even then it is hard to tell whether the gland is larger than normal because the dimensions of this gland are so variable.

Please send your questions and comments to Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

"All We Latin Americans Must Pull Together!"

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — President Johnson uses the "dramatic unexpected" almost everywhere in government. National Aeronautics and Space Administration's administrator, James Webb, is one of the latest to feel the effects.

Normally all parts of the President's new budget are held officially secret until the whole document is handed to Congress. But NASA jumped the gun and announced its $5.3 billion request for fiscal 1965, along with a bid for $141 million in extra funds this year.

It was no accident. A few days before NASA's announcement, Webb had a call from the White House. The upshot: The agency was authorized to break precedent and dispatch to Congress, ahead of everybody else, both its supplemental 1964 request and its 1965 figure.

The bustling around NASA was considerable. Officials decided that if Johnson wanted to do this, he probably wished to be well supplied with back-up reasons. So they put together a five-page paper laying out the agency's achievements in the last few years.

When NASA cut its budget figures loose, the explanation it gave for departing from standard procedure was simply that the President feels urgent action is required. Admittedly, the $141 million in extra money for 1964 is badly needed to maintain minimum momentum in the manned space flight programs—including the heretofore moon shot.

But there seems to be a little more to it than this. President Johnson evidently wanted to demonstrate, by the device of attention-getting priority, his strong commitment to the late President Kennedy's moon shot timetable (target date 1970).

Last year Congress slashed nearly $600 million from the $5.7 billion Kennedy requested for NASA. The manned flight programs were slowed, and there are elements of slowdown and stretch-out in NASA's new budget.

So, while the urgency of NASA's immediate needs appears real enough, Johnson has seized the occasion to dramatize his own concern for the space effort.

Though this is a tight space budget as compared with last year, he is lined up against the program's critics who picture it as broadly wasteful of economic resources, scientific brains, technical manpower, and national energies.

He has put himself in the company of those defenders who argue not only that the space race with Russia is a competition we must win, but that this entire effort yields enlarging general benefits to the nation's economy.

As the President well understands, the word "space" has a magic ring to it in many parts of the country. Leaders in the South's rising economy either utter thanks that they have a slice of the program or voice hope that they soon will. Many governors and their economic development men look upon space research and industry as a key to their states' growth. They try to gear their scientific and general educational effort to attract space dollars.

Today all but one or two states get some of those dollars, but the evidence of broad distribution is misleading.

As of last July 1, California, with $2,435 billion in contracts, had more than 40 per cent of space business, including research. Far down the line, Missouri was second with some $380 million. Following were New York, Louisiana, Florida, Alabama and Texas, the last with a little more than $100 million.

Debate may rage over whether any measurable part of these outlays is misdirected and hence wasteful. But in the field, where 90 per cent of NASA's money goes, the space push looks to many like the formula for the future.

Letters To The Press

U.P. WAGES

To the Detroit News:
The letter by Harold Yarbrough, one of the 3,400 who will lose their jobs when Burroughs closes in Detroit asks why? Let me explain. First, may I point out that we, in Sault Ste. Marie, have lost not one but six plants. This total adds up to the entire industry of this town of 20,000 people. Also it has taken place while we have been making a heroic attempt to attract new industry.

The plants we have lost are Soo Woolen Mills, employing 90 people, in operation for 55 years; Northwestern Leather Co., employing 700-800, continuous operation for 58 years; Cadillac-Soo Lumber Co., employing 250, established 1922; Lock City Machine & Marine Co., 500 employees; Retailers Wholesale Bakery, employing 35, moved to Marquette in 1958; and Union Carbide Olefins Co., employing up to 1,000 (though recently down to 400), in operation since 1902.

What is causing this industrial blight? The same thing that has brought about the loss of the Burroughs plant in Detroit, I believe. It is universal and sooner or later, if not recognized will bring about the failure of our entire economy. Studebaker has demonstrated it can't stand up even though 102 years of successful operation lay behind it.

New York papers were not able to survive. Thus it is not location, nor age, nor type of industry. The malady is national in scope and universal in its spread of blight and loss of jobs.

If we persist in a fallacy long enough, eventually it will warp our whole economy, not only our industry, but our whole way of life, our very nation. The fallacy causing most of our trouble is that we have for 25 years been attempting to make work the idea that you can go on getting more for less or in other words, continue to entrust the unions with the built-in satisfier of greed commonly called annual wage increases.

If you doubt that there is inflation, ask yourself why should cars cost five times as much today as they did 25 years ago. If you doubt that annual wage increases do not play havoc with our economy, ask why truck drivers get five times as much in wages as well-qualified school teachers.

Inasmuch as only one - fifth of the people in the U.S. are gainfully employed members of unions, the four-fifths who are gainfully employed and not members of unions should recognize the fallacy of annual wage increases and the damage being wrought by this built-in greed satisfier and simply not go along with any strike or any attempt on the part of a minority group, tough and vocal, to continue to disturb and disrupt our very existence.

Why must we go along with this glitteringly foolish fallacy and let un-Christian principles bring us to destruction? The U.S. is a Christian nation and it is high time Christian principles are recognized if we are to have jobs for all.

Archives Under Tight Security

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Archives Building, where rest the records of a nation 187 years old, has tighter security regulations since a recent theft.

But authorities have no fear of anyone stealing the Declaration of Independence or other great documents.

"We feel there's absolutely no possibility of anyone making off with the real national treasures," Dr. Robert H. Bahmer, deputy archivist of the United States, said in an interview.

Despite elaborate safeguards, presidential letters and other documents valued at $500,000 were stolen from the research area.

The three great charters of freedom of the United States are enshrined in the exhibition hall of the Archives Building.

These are the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights.

During the hours the building is open to the public, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., a guard stands by the great documents, enclosed in glass cases.

After the great bronze doors of the building are closed, slowly an electric mechanism begins to operate.

Erily, the seven sealed glass cases containing the precious parchments begin to descend. It takes one minute for them to sink to a 50-ton vault, 20 feet below the floor, there to spend the night.

The vault is of steel and reinforced concrete with floor and walls 1 foot, 3 inches thick. The two doors of the same thickness that lock over it weigh 5 tons each. The vault is fireproof, shockproof and is considered bombproof.

In an emergency, the documents can be lowered at a moment's notice. In case of power failure, a stand-by mechanism will lower them and close the vault.

There's more than theft from which to protect the documents. Damage could result from light, air, heat, cold, mold and dust.

To safeguard against these, each parchment document leaf is sealed in helium, an inert gas, in its own bronze-bound case of filtered glass.

APPRECIATION

We would like to thank the people of Escanaba and area for their wonderful cooperation and generosity in our "Salvation Army Christmas Cheer" program. Over a thousand people received gratuities and many have written to say how the gifts made a happy holiday for them.

The Jaycees, the Firemen, all the Service Clubs and the general public deserve a big vote of thanks. All the ladies who dressed the dolls donated by the First National Bank would have been thrilled to see the little girls with their new dolls.

There are too many organizations, stores, etc. to name, who were so generous with their gifts, but all of these were really appreciated. Also a "thank you" to the workers who filled the baskets and put in many long hours doing so. To all of the people who helped make the Christmas program a success, we say a "million thanks".

Sincerely yours,
Capt. and Mrs. Orville Butts

Too Many Seek Job As Veep

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., who would like to run for vice president, says there are too many candidates for the job.

At a White House conference of legislative leaders, said Humphrey Tuesday, President Johnson jokingly mentioned that Pierre Salinger "looks like a vice presidential candidate." Salinger is White House press secretary.

Humphrey said he complained that other potential candidates are getting the breaks.

"The President sent Bobby Kennedy to the Far East," said Humphrey. "He sent Sargent Shriver to deliver a message to the Pope. Adlai Stevenson got to escort Mrs. Johnson when she went to the theater in New York. So I asked the President, 'Who's going to enroll Lynda Bird in George Washington University?' I'll volunteer."

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Former Gov. Hugh Gregg of New Hampshire has filed for election to the Republican National Convention as a delegate-at-large favorable to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

He is the first candidate to file as a supporter of Rockefeller as the GOP presidential nominee.

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Gov. Richard J. Hughes, 54, of New Jersey has been admitted to a hospital in Trenton for treatment of a pain in his right leg.

He told newsmen the pain is a recurrence of phlebitis, inflammation of the back of his knee, for which he was hospitalized two years ago.

Hughes said he expects to leave the hospital in three or four days.

Tax Refund Can Be Had In Bonds

Federal income taxpayers are reminded by John L. Greene, savings bond chairman for Delta County, that the U. S. Treasury again is offering the option of taking refunds in U. S. savings bonds. The savings option, first introduced last year, is in addition to the two standard options of taking tax refunds in cash or applying them to the next year's tax.

"By electing to take his refund in Series E bonds," Greene said, "the taxpayer holds onto his money conveniently, through a secure, risk-free investment which pays interest at a guaranteed rate."

Taxpayers taking their 1962 refunds in savings bonds swelled the 1963 bond sales by $19.2 million and raised the number of bonds issued by 237,455. This year, Greene said, the Treasury hopes the plan will further increase the sale of savings bonds, and encourage more citizens to develop regular savings habits.

New Industries Are Suggested

LANSING (AP)—Thirteen research projects that would cost $480,055 in a program to bolster Michigan's economy are being considered by the House Economic Development Committee.

Six Michigan colleges and universities submitted the proposed projects in a resolution to the committee Tuesday. Lawmakers were asked to approve spending the $480,055 from $750,000 in authorized funds.

One project would involve research into a possible plant to treat wood grown in Michigan with preservatives for use as posts, rails and poles. Another would survey the reasons and possible solutions in a decline in machinery and fabricated metal products industries in the state. Other ideas involve the tourist, furniture and pulpwood industries, and studies are asked of resource and trade development.

Michigan State University asked $11,500 for providing data "to assure the success of a new wood preserving plant treating state-grown and harvested timber."

MSU researchers said there is a market in Michigan for treated posts, particularly for guard rails, and these are currently treated outside Michigan, using timber cut in the Deep South.

A new wood-treating plant in Michigan would result in new jobs "at the treating plant and to an even greater extent in the supporting woods operation."

The report mentions forest stands in the Upper and northern lower peninsulas.

Another entry, by The University of Michigan, calls attention to "recent relative declines in the second and third largest industries in the state — machinery and fabricated metal products."

Sacred College Increase Seen

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The death of another Roman Catholic cardinal increased anticipation that Pope Paul VI soon will call a consistory to replenish the Sacred College.

There also was speculation that the pontiff would make most of his choices from outside Italy, in line with his manifest desire to give the church's leadership a more international character.

Carlo Cardinal Chiarlo, 82, Italian member of the Vatican Curia, died Tuesday night of an intestinal tumor at Lucca, his family home. He had been ill more than seven months.

Cardinal Chiarlo's death reduced the College of Cardinals to 78 members.

Vatican sources believe the next consistory might elevate 22 men, bringing the College of Cardinals to an even 100 for the first time.

Tax Exemption Rules Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE—Do you know who to claim as a dependent in filing a tax return on 1963 income? Do you understand how to claim exemptions for the full-time benefit to yourself? In this fourth of five articles you will find the answers to these and other questions that may save you money.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

You knock $600 off your income—before what's left is taxable—for each exemption you can claim in filing your 1963 income tax return.

A person filing a return gets a $600 exemption for himself if he is under 65, an additional $600 if he's 65, and $600 if he's blind. He gets the same for his wife.

The person filing a return also gets a $600 exemption for each person he can claim as a dependent but he doesn't get any extra $600 if the dependent is 65 or blind.

Who's a dependent? It varies. Your child can be claimed as a dependent if he was born or died in 1963 (but not a stillborn child) if you contributed to more than half his support in that part of the year when he was alive.

Students Can Qualify

Age is a vital factor in deciding whether you can claim your own child as a dependent, or a stepchild or adopted child. The age is 19.

If he was under 19 and you provided more than half his support, you can claim him as a dependent and it wouldn't make any difference how much income he had, under or over $600.

But if he was over 19 and had $600 or more income—even though you contributed more than half his support—you couldn't claim him as a dependent unless he qualified as a full-time student.

Your over-19 child would not qualify as a full-time student if he had a regular or part-time job or went to night school or took correspondence courses.

What happens if your under-19 child, or your over-19 child who qualifies as a student dependent, had $600 or more income?

He would file his own return, claiming his own $600 exemption, and paying any tax he owed but you could take a $600 exemption for him on your return and not have to include his income in your return.

A paid servant in your house can not be claimed as a dependent. But a friend can be if he lived in your house the full year and got more than half his support from you—provided any income of his own did not amount to as much as $600 for the year.

If he had $600 or more income he'd have to file his own return, taking his own $600 exemption, and you couldn't claim him as an exemption even though you did contribute to more than half his support.

The following relatives—in addition to your child—can be claimed as dependents if the rules given below apply to them:

Your grandchild, great-grandchild, and so on; your legally adopted child or stepchild, but not the latter's descendants; your brother or sister; your parents, grandparents, or other direct ancestors, but not a foster parent; your stepfather or stepmother; your niece or nephew, meaning a son or daughter of your brother or sister; your father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

Benefits Not Taxable

Death or divorce does not end those relationships. For example: you can continue to claim your father-in-law as a dependent—even though your wife died or divorced you—if he got more than half his support from you.

The relatives listed above did not have to live with you to qualify as dependents. For example: you may have been paying more than half the support of your mother or father who was living with your brother.

In short: you can claim any of them as a dependent if he did not have as much as $600 of his own taxable income and got more than half his support from you.

Right here an important point arises in deciding who's a dependent. It is the difference between taxable and non-taxable income.

Social Security benefits are non-taxable. They do not have to be reported by anyone who had to file a return because he had $600 or more taxable income from some other source.

Money In Bank

But when you as a taxpayer want to decide whether someone you wish to claim as a dependent got more than half his support from you, you may have to consider his Social Security income to this extent:

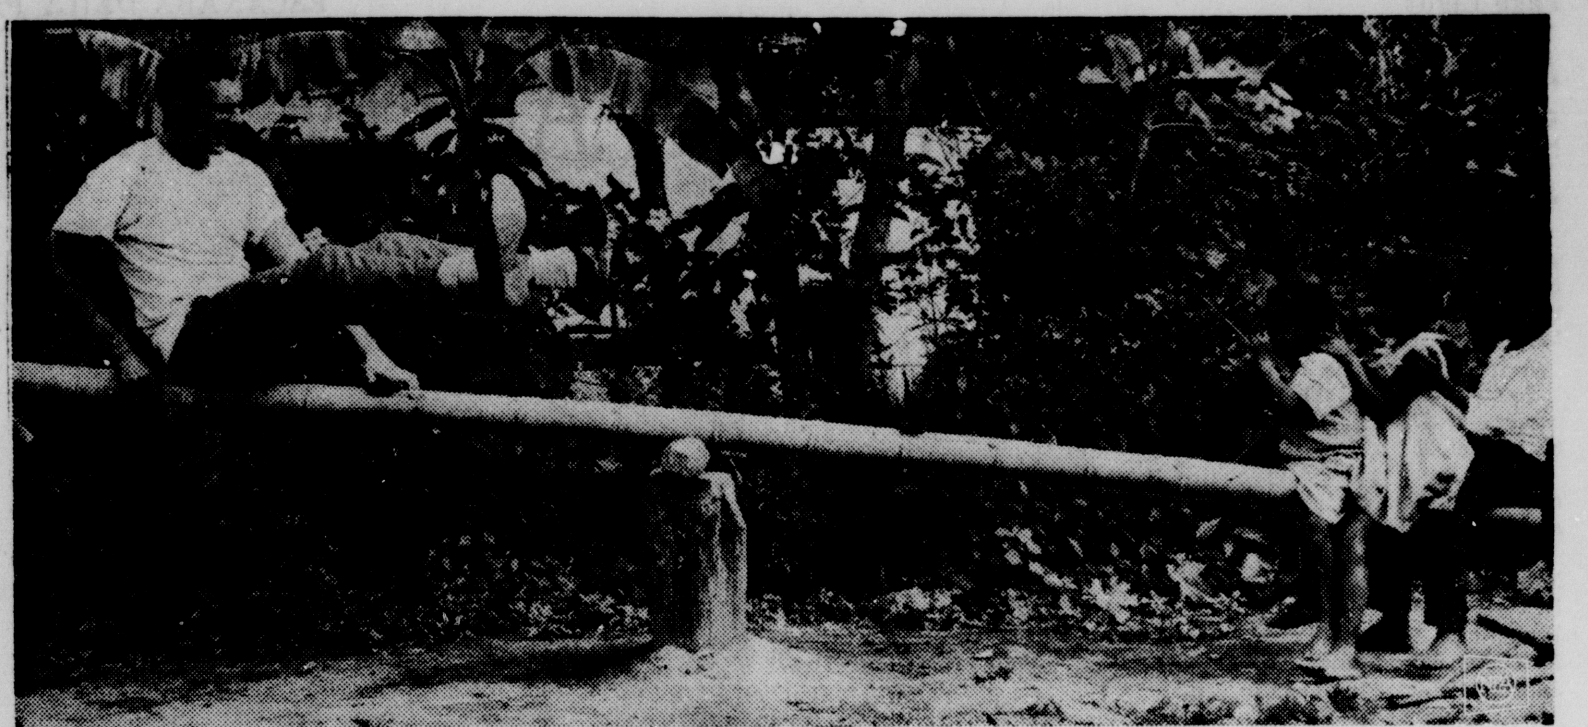

You must figure the support you gave him against the support he got from all other sources.

For example: suppose your mother got $700 in Social Security benefits but put the money in the bank and didn't use it to live on. You could claim her as a dependent if you provided more than half her support.

But, suppose she used her $700 to help her live. You couldn't claim her as a dependent unless you contributed more than $700 to her support.

Isabella Circle Social Meeting Monday Night

The first social of the new year for the Daughters of Isabella, Trinity Circle 362, will be held at the Teamsters' Hall Monday, Jan. 27, at 8 p. m.

A dessert will be served followed by cards of the players' choice, with prize awards for each table.

Miss Joyce Dupey is chairman, and Miss Elaine DeGrand assisting chairman.

The hostess committee is Mesdames Anna Taylor, Matt Lewis, Frank Rodman, Paul Rademacker, Fern Dupey, Alfred Derusha, James Donovan, Joseph Osier, Tim Curran, Joseph Cousineau, Lucille Hermes, John Kangas, Arthur Lauzon and Betty Pepin and the Misses Theresa Pepin, Ruth Ford and Helen Dupuis.

The next social will be held Feb. 10 instead of the regular date because of Ash Wednesday falling on Feb. 12. The regular business meeting will take place Feb. 24.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Special Program At Rapid River P.T.A. Meeting

The monthly meeting of Rapid River P.T.A. will be held in the multi-purpose room of the Bay de Noc Elementary School at 8 p. m., Monday, Jan. 27.

Mrs. Donald Fitch, a speech therapist, will present a program on the general background and basic understanding of speech problems. Mrs. Fitch, a graduate of the University of Michigan, taught speech correction for three years in the public schools, two years in Ypsilanti, and one year in Minneapolis. She also does private tutoring for individuals with speech problems.

Miss Mary Croteau, consultant at the Michigan State Library in Escanaba, will present the idea of extending the services of the state library to the Rapid River area. Miss Croteau would like to have this library in operation by March. She is interested in seeing how the community will accept the plan and she will also seek housing for the books and volunteer helpers.

The entire Rapid River community is encouraged to attend this worthwhile meeting because it will be the area at large which will benefit.

Arrangements for the program were made by Mrs. Royce Gustafson, program chairman for the month of January. Mrs. Lawrence Viau is president of the association. Refreshments will be served by the tenth grade mothers.

When you've used canned cherries—the dark sweet ones—and the cherry syrup is left over, you can use the syrup as part of the liquid in a cherry-flavored gelatin dessert.

Ann Landers

Not A Sissy

Dear Ann Landers: The man I was engaged to left town suddenly and I was so heart-broken I refused to date for almost two years.

Recently I began to keep company with a man who works with me. He has re-kindled my interest in the opposite sex. My father met Kermit for the first time last evening and he pointed out something that made me uncomfortable.

Papa said here must be something wrong with a man who "smells as good as Kermit does and wears nail polish—even if it is colorless."

Frankly, I like the pleasant scent that Kermit has about himself. It's after-shave lotion. I think his fingernails look very nice, too.

Am I wrong? Is there something sissified or effeminate about a man who has beautifully manicured nails and smells good?—ANOTHER ANN

Dear Ann: A he-man doesn't need to smell like a stable-hand and have a half acre of soil under his fingernails to prove it. Kermit gets the nod from this Ann, too.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 18 and ready to make a reservation in The Old Ladies Home. My life is ruined and I never want to see another boy as long as I live.

I will call the rat Troy because he looks like Troy Donahue. We started to go steady Labor Day weekend. Troy gave me his picture and wrote on it, "Love, forever." We exchanged sweaters. I. D. bracelets. I put a peroxide streak in his hair. He painted my name on the door of his convertible and we were like soddered.

I should have guessed when he gave me an 87c bottle of ologne for Christmas, but the cookie didn't crumble until he told me he had to take a third cousin out New Year's Eve—his mother's orders. I told him to come get his junk, that we were through. His answer was, "Fine. Going steady is like being in jail. Good-bye Warden."

What do you think of a skunk who would treat a girl like that after she gave him the best five months of her life?—RED EYES

Dear Red: Welcome to the Free World. The advantages of NOT going steady outweigh by far the advantages. What some teens mistake for social security in reality is social paralysis.

Dear Ann Landers: My brother Lanny is 38, a college graduate, and successful in business. He has always been my mother's favorite.

Last year Lanny began to see a woman about 10 years older than himself. She is vivacious, attractive and a good person so far as I know. When Mother forbade him to bring this woman to her home he moved into an apartment.

Since that time Mother has phoned every member of the family and asked that they urge Lanny to stop seeing this woman. Mother makes this the central theme of every conversation and we are all sick of it.

This morning my husband told me that the next time my mother starts in on Lanny he is going to tell her off and walk out. I am distressed over this. Where do my loyalties lie?—LUCINDA

Dear Lucinda: Has Lanny told your mother how he feels? If he hasn't he should—and soon.

If she still insists on making this relationship subject A in all her conversations he could then justifiably take that walk. And if you agree that an adult should be allowed to lead his own life, walk with him.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, and self-addressed envelope.

Repeal Of Tax Asked At Flint

FLINT (AP) — Petitions bearing 4,719 signatures were presented to the Flint city clerk Tuesday asking for either the repeal of the city's one per cent income tax or a referendum on the tax.

City officials said acceptance of the petitions, submitted by the "Committee of Petitioners," does not bind the city to action and added that it still must be determined if the petitions contain enough signatures to meet city requirements.

The anti-tax group said if the petitions are not certified within 10 days it will seek Circuit Court action by way of a writ of mandamus requiring an election on the issue and an injunction preventing further collection or use of tax money collected.

The tax took effect last Jan. 1 on an ordinance passed by the Flint City Commission. Flint, Detroit and Hamtramck are the only cities in the state which levy such taxes.

City officials said the number of signatures must equal at least five per cent of the number of votes cast in the last municipal election before the petitions would be considered valid.

In Service

Roderick G. Bassett, senior chief boatswain's mate, USCG, husband of the former Miss Irene E. Van Effen of 327 N. 20th St., Escanaba, Mich., is serving aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Arundel, presently a unit of the "Operation Oil Can" task force.

Arundel and other cutters with ice-breaking capability are assigned to keep channels open in the ice fields of lower Lake Michigan so that merchant tanker vessels can deliver their cargo to cities around the lake. Arundel is a 110-foot tug based in Chicago.

Elect Bergman Bank Officer At Bark River

BARK RIVER — Officers and directors of the Bark River State Bank were elected at the annual meeting held Tuesday.

B. R. Erickson was reelected president and director; Roy A. Bergman, who has served as a director, was elected vice president also, filling a vacancy caused by the death of William Boyle, was the Bank's executive vice president.

E. F. Krause and Thomas Bartoszek were reelected to the board of directors; and Loyal E. Hanson, cashier, was also advanced to board membership.

Other employees are June T. Constantinneau, assistant cashier; Beverly Fournier, teller; and Betty Bartosz, bookkeeper.

UM Field Course Offered Here

Upper Peninsula Field Course in Psychology starts in Newberry High School on Feb. 14, Room 27, at 6:30 p. m. Offered as a University of Michigan Cooperative Course with Northern Michigan University, the course provides two semester hours of graduate or undergraduate credit; however, it can be taken without credit by persons wishing to do so.

Registration may be made at the opening session. A class roster is now being compiled and any persons interested in taking the course are asked to call or write H. E. Kilpela, principal, Newberry High School, phone 175.

Admissions to Tahquamenon General Hospital Monday were Elizabeth Linck, Engadine; Laura Mudge, Paradise; and the Rev. Fr. A. Ehlinger.

Phyllis Kalmbach of Newberry was ticketed by State Police for failure to yield the right of way after she struck a car driven by Pauline Manville. This mishap occurred at 3:45 Monday on Vulcan St., south of East Ave. B. Mrs. Kalmbach was driving from an alley yard when she struck the other car.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

Ira Farrell's "Haywire," an earthy account of his youth in Hardwood, didn't break any sales records as a hardback upon publication a year or so ago, but as a paperback it's a hotcake.

Gene Hebert's Escanaba Photo Offset Printing Co. reprinted the book for the paperback trade and in its first three weeks (Dec. 23-Jan. 14) in Delta County alone the first press run of 1,000 copies was sold out. The book is now in its second printing with large printings to come.

"This is setting a practical pattern for reprint of other Upper Peninsula books," suggests Hebert. He might be nipped with the suggestion that he's out for a greenback, but actually there's a big benefit in sight here for the U. P., which will be much more interesting to visitors if it has an attractive local literature.

"A sample rack of recreational reading and of U. P. entertainment in print will be included in the Upper Michigan Tourist Association's sports show booths, according to Ken Doorman, UMTA's manager," says Hebert.

Clarence Mark Named Chairman Of Trinity Church

Clarence Mark was installed as chairman of Trinity Lutheran Church on Sunday, Jan. 19. He succeeds John Weiland.

Other officers installed by the Rev. Allen E. Parks were William Kallio as vice chairman; Walter Adler, secretary; Ernest Hiltunen, treasurer; D. J. Wood, trustee; Thomas Kuehl, parish education chairman and Leonard Bierlein, stewardship chairman.

Also recognized in the service were John Weiland, Walter Schjoth, and Dr. E. A. Rettke for their service on the Church Council during the past years.

First Lutheran Holds Meeting At Grand Marais

The annual meeting of First Lutheran Church, Grand Marais, was held Sunday, Jan. 19, following the English worship service. Pastor E. E. Torkko presented his annual report and Axel Abrahamson gave the treasurer's report. The Sunday School report was given by Mrs. Armas Abrahamson.

The following officers were elected: Armas Abrahamson, vice chairman; Mrs. Helmi Hermanson, secretary; Axel Abrahamson, treasurer; and Church Council, John A. Mattson, Arvo Kallio and A. Niemi; Anna Seaback, financial secretary.

Mrs. Beatrice Mixon will continue as organist, choir director and Sunday School superintendent. In the Sunday School there were 31 pupils and 6 teachers.

Hill Is Chairman Of Alger Council

Arnold Hill, Trenary dairy farmer and chairman of the Alger County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, was elected chairman of the U.S.D.A. Council last week. He succeeds Donald Pellegrini, Soil Conservation Service, Chatham. The Council is composed of representatives of U.S. Department of Agriculture agencies in the county. Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of the first month of each quarter.

Sledding Party

A sledding party was held Saturday afternoon at the home of 4-H leathercraft leader Mrs. Earl Wright northeast of Trenary. The leathercraft club and the Country Girls Sewing club participated with 20 children and six leaders enjoying skiing, sledding and tobogganing. Leaders provided refreshments during the warm-up period.

Gain Enrollment At Bay College

Students began to register for several new course areas and community service programs at Bay de Noc Community College last night. Full time students have now registered and the part time students will continue to register during this week.

President Richard Rinehart announced that 15 new full time students were accepted for the coming semester at the college and that 60 new part time students are expected.

These new part time students will take some special programs that begin to develop the community service function of the college. At the request of the Department of Public Instruction and the water and waste water treatment associations, Bay de Noc Community College, along with Northern Michigan University and Michigan Technological University, are offering courses in applied mathematics for water and sewage treatment plant operators. The course will be instructed by J. Donald Grenfell of Gladstone.

Other courses include one in work simplification and courses for people preparing to take examinations. A secretarial skills improvement course is offered for those taking civil service examinations and a course for surveyors and engineers to prepare for state registration examinations is also scheduled.

Other new courses of interest include Introduction to Theater and Staging, to be taught by John Romstad, and Expository Writing for those interested in advanced composition, which will be taught by Arni Dunathan. Expository Writing will be offered in the evening, along with Elements of Music, Painting, foreign languages, and Social Psychology.

Based on the current enrollment and planned courses, the college expects to have about 275 total students, of which 120 will be full time students.

Raft Reported Seen In Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—The Coast Guard launched a search Wednesday night for a raft that was reported sighted in the area where an Air Force Globemaster with nine crewmen aboard vanished near Johnston Island on Jan. 2.

The Air Force stressed immediately that the reported sighting was unofficial, and that they were trying to confirm it.

An Air Force cargo plane's crew reported sighting the raft about 250 miles west of Johnston Island. The pilot said a man appeared to be waving on the raft.

The area of the raft sighting was reported in the same general area where the Air Force plane disappeared two weeks ago with a crew of eight, a Navy enlisted man and a corpse aboard.

The Navy man was escorting the body of a comrade home from Tokyo.

Authorities said they knew of no other raft likely to be in the area.

Three Navy planes were dispatched to the area and ships were also reported steaming toward the scene.

The sighting came on the same day that the Air Force had officially declared the crew of the missing plane dead.

An extensive search for the plane's crew was called off Jan. 1. It cost about $1.5 million, with 70 planes logging nearly 4,000 flying hours during the search.

Teamsters Credit Union Meeting Is Set For Saturday

The Teamsters Federal Credit Union will hold its ninth annual business meeting on Saturday evening, Jan. 25, starting with a 5 o'clock supper at the Teamsters Hall.

Larry V. Suboski, Newberry, engineer with the State Highway Department, will be the toastmaster.

The speakers will be Mrs. Victor Powers and Mrs. William Taylor of the Escanaba League of Women Voters.

Following the program a business meeting will be held and entertainment presented.

Arthur Erickson, Credit Union president, said members may each have one guest and a large attendance is expected.

At the election, members will choose two directors. Terms of directors Leo Trudeau of Gladstone and George C. Anderson of Escanaba are expiring.

Legion Meet

Three hundred delegates from the 57 Upper Peninsula posts and 52 Auxiliary units are expected to attend the mid-winter conference of U. P. American Legion Posts scheduled at Stambaugh, Friday through Sunday.

History Society Hears Alderfer; Elects Officers

Local history is one of the tools that can be utilized to build a better tourist trade, William K. Alderfer, Lansing, director of the Michigan Historical Society, told the Delta County Historical Society at its annual dinner meeting at the Sherman Hotel last night.

"Here is what the local history movement in the U. S. is today," said Alderfer.

"Local historical societies have nearly 400,000 members, hold 9,000 meetings each year, and have cash income of $5,850,000 each year."

"Two-thirds of the local historical societies in the U. S. have quarters of some kind and two-thirds of them own their own building. Their property value is over $18,000,000."

Historical Value

"There are 1,000 local historical society museums in the U. S. and each year they draw more than five million tourists and other visitors," Alderfer reported.

The information he presented was from last year's survey by the American Association for State and Local History.

Alderfer reported on the growing interest in the work of the Michigan Historical Society and its program of cooperative encouragement of local history groups. He is touring the U. P. under auspices of the University of Michigan Extension Service in company with Charles Folio, Extension supervisor and director of the Michigan Historical Society.

Alderfer and Folio today are in the Copper Country, after visiting Historical Societies in eastern U. P. communities and advising toward organization of a Luce County Historical Society at Newberry.

More Visitors

Dave Coon, Escanaba, curator of the Delta County Historical Museum and also its secretary for many years, reported that he is retiring this year. He reported that in 1963 there were 4,228 visitors registered at the Museum at Sand Point, a gain of about 600 over the year before.

The Museum building is becoming crowded and "a long look" should be taken before additional articles of historical interest are accepted, he advised.

George Embs, retiring president of the Delta County Historical Society praised Coon for his devotion and attention to the many responsibilities which he has fulfilled so faithfully. "He is our spark plug, our worker. Above anyone else, he is 'Mr. Historical Society' in Delta County," said Embs.

Embs expressed appreciation also to the City Council and to the Delta County Board of Supervisors for their cooperation in furthering the objectives of the local Society.

New Officers

John J. Mitchell, the 1964 president of the Society, voiced praise of Embs' leadership of the group the past two years, including the Centennial Year 1963 in Escanaba, in which the Historical Society had an important part.

Officers of the Society are Mitchell, president; Robert Schmeling, vice president; Miss Eva Plomstrom, secretary; Mrs. Clint Dunathan, treasurer.

The directors are Mrs. Cornelia Jensen and Mrs. Paul Rademacher of Escanaba; Robert Watchorn, Fayette; A. T. Sohlberg, Brampton; Charles Folio, Edward E. Edick, William E. Anderson, Escanaba; Peder Pedersen of Stonington; Clayton Ford of Corneli; Arvid Mustonen Sr., of Escanaba; George J. Embs of Gladstone; Frank Bender Jr., of Soo Hill and Clint Dunathan of Escanaba.

Songs from "Oklahoma!" were sung by Miss Carol Kaiser and Dale Helms, Escanaba Area High School students who were among leads in the recent successful production at the school. Helms and Miss Kaiser joined in the popular duet, "People Will Say We're In Love." Mrs. Pearl St. Clair was accompanist.

MUCC Opposing Wild Card For Resources Board

Insertion of a "wild card" in the Conservation Commission deck could result in a bad deal for the people of Michigan, according to Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

The suggestion has been made that the law be changed to give an incoming governor the immediate appointment of one man to the seven-man commission, to serve "at the governor's pleasure." It was advanced in a "minority report" appended to the findings of the Governor's Special Conservation Study Committee, and some factions are understood to consider this a good idea.

"We believe commission appointments should continue to be made on the basis of ability, not of partisan politics," declared MUCC President D. S. Myers. "Such an innovation would appear to serve a rather questionable purpose of introducing political implications to the naming of the commission, a step which could prove to be a foot-in-the-door to complete political takeover of this vital body."

Conservation commissioners are now appointed for terms of six years in groups of three, two and two in the odd years. The new constitution, which specifies terms of four years for all state commissioners on boards created or enlarged after it takes effect, will effect no changes on the Conservation Commission, which can be changed only by amending or repealing the laws relating to it.

Newberry Auxiliary Meets At Hospital

The members of the Tahquamenon hospital auxiliary held their first meeting of the new year Tuesday in the John Barrett Memorial Solarium.

Mrs. C. B. Beaulieu, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers nominated for 1964. By unanimous ballot the following were accepted: President, Mrs. Elizabeth Roat; vice-president Mrs. Louise McLean; recording secretary Mrs. Mae Cornell; treasurer Mrs. James Gallagher; corresponding secretary Mrs. Delia Hild; sunshine committee, Mrs. Ira Clark.

As a project for February, a Valentine Tea and bake sale will be sponsored by the Auxiliary, with Mrs. Mary Duflo as chairman. It will be held on Feb. 7 from 2 to 5 p. m. in the John Barrett Solarium.

The next regular meeting will be held Feb. 18.

Briefly Told

The Elk's U. P. Bowling tournament will begin Feb. 8 at the Tahquamenon Lanes.

New Historical Director Visits

William K. Alderfer, Lansing, director of the Historical Society of Michigan and Charles Folio of Escanaba, a Historical society trustee and assistant director of the University of Michigan Extension service, met here Wednesday with officers of the Schoolcraft Historical Society at a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Joseph Herbert.

Alderfer, who began duties in Michigan July 1, is making a tour of Upper Michigan. His visit included St. Ignace Tuesday night, Sault Ste. Marie Monday night, the Luce County area, where a new society is planned, and Escanaba last night. The new director is from Wisconsin, where an outstanding program has been developed.

The Historical Society of Michigan has embarked on a program with its own director, through contributions obtained. A strong program in schools is included in the plans, along with involvement of many persons in the Historical program. While here Alderfer met with School Supt. Edwin Wuehle and toured the Post House Museum, in which various rooms are furnished as in a home at the turn of the century. Members discussed with Alderfer plans to enlarge and probably have period rooms arranged. The museum, said Alderfer, is an example of what can be done by local societies in collection and display of artifacts and understand what life was like 50 to 70 years ago. Schoolcraft has an active historical group, one of 57 in the state.

Alderfer, a canoeist who plans to return with his family for a trip on the Tahquamenon, also outlined the membership program of the state society, which distributes the State Historical Commission magazine and has its own bi-monthly publication, "The Chronicle." Offices are in the Civic Center at Lansing.

Portage Bay Campground Set For Improvement

The Department of Conservation has drafted plans for improvement of the Portage Bay campground on the Garden peninsula, Wilfred Wallace, district forester reports. The work will be done this spring with APW matching funds. Better access from Garden will be provided in the revised plan.

Proposed also is a new campground in the area north of the new McDonald Lake water control dam. Conservation workers here are currently marking hardwood for a timber sale in the T44 R16 area of Hiawatha township.

Hospital

Discharged from Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital are John Larson, Garden Ave.; Gene McBurney, Indian Lake; Van Anderson, Schoolcraft Ave.; Barbara Zellar, Germfask; Patricia Jenerou, Rte. 1; Loretta Janes, Rte. 1; Corinne Schlinger, Cooks; Naomi Gauthier, 101 S. Cedar St.; and Leon Nicholson, Range St.

VANISHING BREED?—Not here—America's tradition of hardy workhorses is still being kept strong in the northern woods of Maine. These horses still play an important role in snaking logs out of the backcountry by sled in locations where they are more efficient than trucks. This scene will be repeated many times this winter on the tree farms owned by paper companies.

Inland Earns More in 1963

Inland Steel reported 1963 earnings of $56,139,106 or $3.11 a share, an increase of 7 per cent from the $52,486,902 or $2.94 a share earned in 1962 but short of the company's record $58,876,875 or $3.45 a share earned in 1957.

Sales, production and shipments reached record levels in 1963, which was the company's 70th year of operations.

Consolidated sales were $808,089,940, an increase of approximately 6 per cent over both 1962 and 1957. Earnings per dollar of sales were 6.9 per cent in 1963, unchanged from 1962.

Joseph L. Block, chairman, said the outlook continues favorable for steel consuming industries and business generally. "We believe," he said, "that customers' steel inventories have now been reduced to normal quantities so that current purchases are directly related to needs. We anticipate, therefore, that our operations in the first quarter of 1964 will be at higher levels than prevailed during the final quarter of 1963." He added, "we are hopeful that 1964 as a whole will be marked by further gains in sales and in earnings."

Entertainment Set For Dinner Of SMH Auxiliary

Discuss Program On Sex Education

About 40 persons representing Parent Teacher Associations, schools, the Delta County Health Department and the clergy, attended a meeting in the multi-purpose room of the James T. Jones School Wednesday evening to discuss the feasibility of putting a program on sex education into use in the community schools.

Robert Drew, U.P. representative of the Michigan Department of Mental Health conducted the meeting. Also present was Dr. Mary Cretens, director of the Delta-Menominee District Health Department. Wallace Cameron, superintendent of public schools, said the program was offered the schools by the department of mental health and that other conferences on the proposed subject have been held in Manistique and Stambaugh, both with successful results.

He pointed out that Wednesday's meeting was strictly for the purpose of obtaining public reaction to the proposal. "Those attending," he said, "all seemed to be in agreement that there was a definite need for education of this type at the school levels."

A Gladston physician said that there is presently a trend where between the ages of 16-18 years, and again between the ages of 25-28, there are more illegitimate pregnancies than at any other time. He said this apparently occurred because of children getting into trouble while in their teens which leads to marriage and subsequent divorce. Later at the ages 25-28 a similar pattern follows when the person divorced is seeking a mate.

Cameron pointed out that the schools are interested in looking at all sides of the problem, social, moral, emotional and psychological.

The first step towards further investigation into public reaction on the educational program will be the showing of three movies obtained from the Department of Mental Health. They will be shown at the February meeting of the PTA tentatively set for Feb. 17. The public is invited to attend. A panel discussion will be held following the meeting.

Soo Line Net Climbs In '63

Net income for the Soo Line Railroad for 1963 of $4,096,342, or $3.24 per share, 32 per cent greater than the $3,100,063 earned in 1962.

Revenues for 1963 were moderately greater, $80,563,650 for 1963 compared to $80,384,470 for 1962.

Two factors contributed significantly to the Soo's better earnings in 1963, President L. H. Murray said. "We handled more business at considerably less transportation expense. And we reduced by approximately $925,000, or nearly 20 per cent, our expenses for the rental of freight cars from other railroads. At the same time, we increased our spending for maintenance to fixed facilities by $1,371,000, our spending for maintenance of equipment by $295,000, and accrued regularly the interest on our bonded indebtedness.

"This third year of the New Soo has been our best from many aspects."

Michigan Pays 4.29 Billion

LANSING (AP) — Michigan taxpayers will be required to pay approximately $4.29 billion in federal taxes as their share of the federal spending program of $97.9 billion proposed by President Johnson, estimates the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

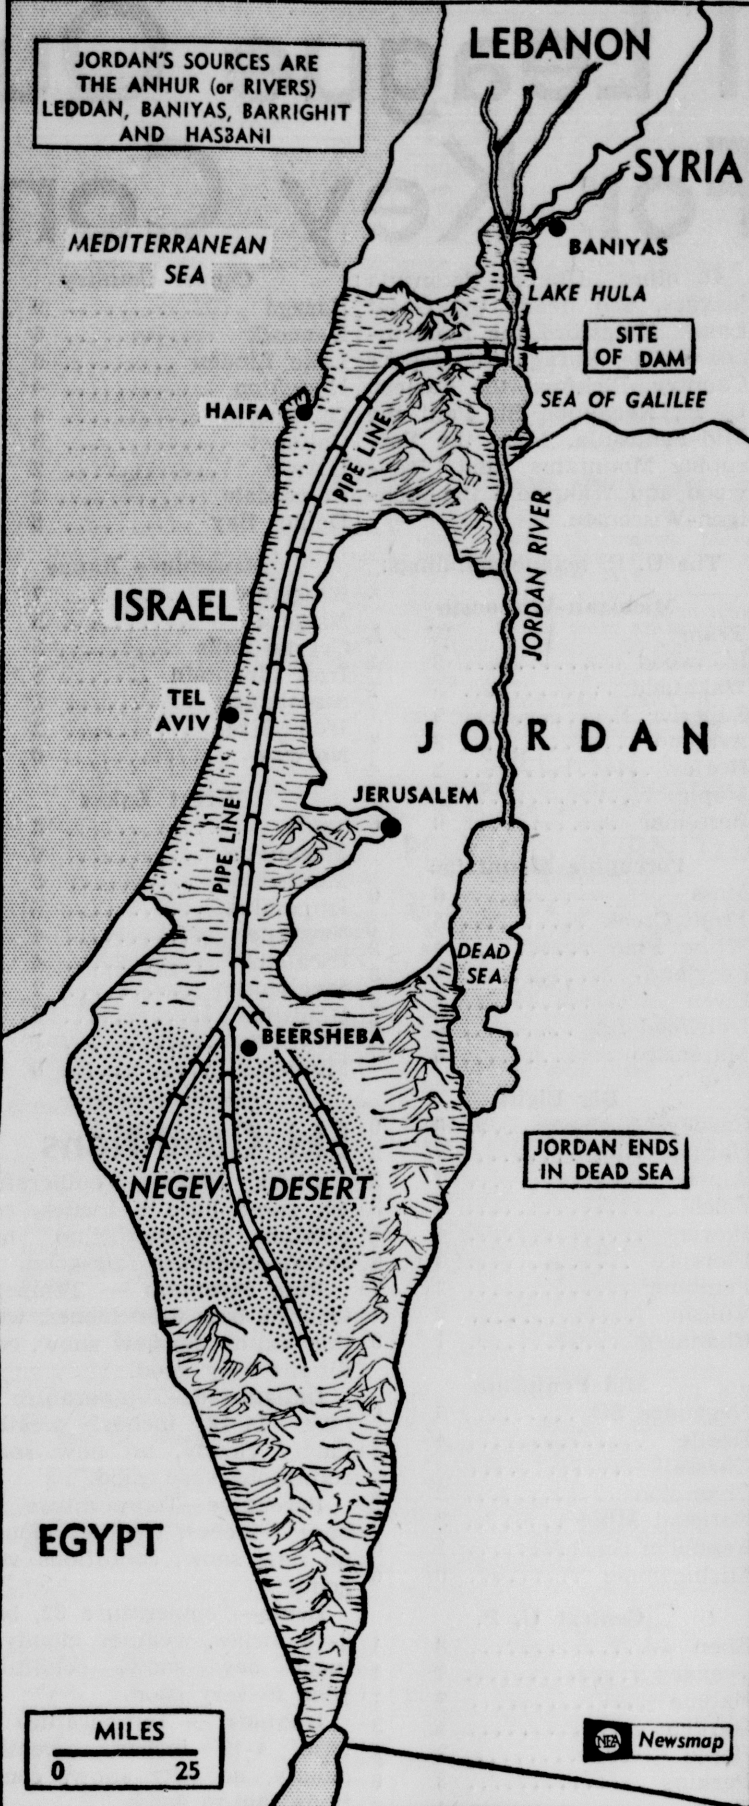

The figure is based on a chamber calculation that Michigan pays 4.39 per cent of all federal taxes.

Michigan's share of the proposed federal budget, the chamber said, is three times the estimated total state spending of $1.4 billion for the current fiscal year.

It also is more than nine times the state's sales tax collection total for the fiscal year, almost four times the amount spent for elementary and secondary school education and nearly five times the taxes levied on real estate and personal property in 1962.

"This budget shows both an encouraging and discouraging trend," said Harry Hall, chamber executive vice president. "It is encouraging to see a reduced budget submitted. It is extremely discouraging to realize that this reduced figure in the budget does not presage any reduced spending."

Washington's Blair House has been maintained as an official residence for visiting dignitaries since 1942.

WHAT THE TROUBLE IS ABOUT—For nearly 10 years Israel has been working on a $100 million project to use the waters of the historic Jordan River to irrigate Negev Desert in the south. It would be done by means of a dam and pipe line, shown on map above. Israel's disgruntled Arab neighbors fear Negev Desert's reclamation would allow Israel to support far greater population than the present 2.5 million.

The Great Lakes Conference continues to find outside competition too tough to handle this season. Great Lakes teams have played 20 basketball games outside the conference this far this season and have lost 15 of them. Holy Name remains the most painful thorn in the Great Lakes side, with six victories and no defeats against GLC competition.

John Olson of Escanaba is the fourth leading scorer on the Michigan Tech basketball team this season. Olson has tallied 28 field goals and 10 free throws for 66 points in eight games. Coach Verdie Cox's Huskies have won two of eight starts.

The surprising Kingsford Flivvers took a step closer to the Menominee Range Conference basketball championship with a 57-53 decision over Stambaugh. Coach Gordy Farragh's cagers, who finished sixth in the seven team conference last season, have won seven straight against Range competition this year. Their only loss was suffered to Holy Name in a non-league clash.

Coach Jerry Erickson's Gwin Model Towners won the first game played in their new gymnasium, beating Bishop Baraga of Marquette 75-69. Johnny Erickson paced Gwin with 29 points. The gym was dedicated to E. L. (Doc) Miller, who has been associated with the school and the community's athletic program for 30 years. Miller tossed the ball out to officials for the opening tipoff in the game.

When Menominee and Marinette Central tangled early in the season, the Marinette team scored an easy 77-41 victory. But in a rematch last weekend the Maroons upset the Cavaliers 35-34 in overtime. The setback snapped Central's 10 game victory string.

The Green Bay Bobcats will play a pair of home games against Oakie Brumm's Waterloo Black Hawks this weekend. Green Bay is a half game ahead of Waterloo in the United States Hockey League race with a 10-6 record. The games are Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

John Goetz of Soo, a pitcher in the San Francisco Giants' farm system, has been purchased by the Toronto team of the International Baseball League. Goetz, former Soo Loretto prep pitcher, was a relief specialist for Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League last season with a 3.41 earned run average. He compiled a 13-10 record in three years with Tacoma.

Central League Quints Head For Key Contests

The red hot Central League basketball race resumes this weekend with a pair of key games that could help clear the traffic at the top of the standings.

Coach Jim Depew's Eben Eagles put their 8-1 record on the line in a home stand against Rapid River Friday night. The Eagles have a half-game edge over Nahma and Trenary.

The Nahma defending champs have an opportunity to gain a share of the lead regardless of what Eben does Friday night. Coach Owen Peterson's cagers take on winless Bark River Friday night and travel to Perkins Saturday night.

Trenary has no chance to gain ground on its own. Coach Steve Ellis' Comets have a non-league contest on tap Friday night against National Mine.

Rounding out the weekend slate will be a game between Rock and Garden at Garden Friday night.

In the Big Eight Conference, league leading Carney carries a perfect record into its game at Hermansville Friday night. The defending champion Redskins are tied for second with Alpha with a 7-2 record.

Olympic Sledder Killed In Crash

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — A black mourning ribbon flapped from the five-ringed Olympic flag today as skiers, skaters and sledders resumed practice sessions in a suddenly somber atmosphere created by the accident that claimed the life of a British tobogganer.

Kazimierz Kay-Skrzypski, 50-year-old British Olympian, died Wednesday of injuries received 24 hours earlier when his sled careened off the chute at nearby Igls in a practice run for the event which will be held for the first time at these winter games.

Athletes and officials paid tribute to Kay - Skrzypski Wednesday night in an open-air ceremony at which Prof. Friedl Wolfgang, head of the Austrian Organizing Committee, said:

"This is a tragedy, all the more as tobogganing was included in the Winter Olympics for the very first time. We were trying to make it as successful as the other competitions, and then this terrible thing happens."

Kay-Skrzypski, a Polish-born British citizen who fled from Nazi-occupied Poland in 1940, was the second fatality in the last two Olympics.

At the 1960 Summer Games in Rome, cyclist Knud Enemark Jensen of Denmark died after competing in a 100-kilometer-62½ mile-road race. Officials at the Rome Olympics announced after the Games that 2,236 injuries had been tabulated during the competition.

Besides Kay - Skrzypski, three other tobogganers have been injured. Two Germans -

Josef Lenz and Josef Fleischmann - were injured here Tuesday, and Elizabeth Gould of Rydal, Pa., a member of the U. S. team, suffered multiple fractures while practicing in Poland in December.

The injuries have caused this order to be issued:

"Please take it easy. It is better to reach the end of the run in a slow time than to finish in a hospital."

It was issued after Kay-Skrzypski suffered multiple fractures when his sled raced out of control at high speed on the Olympic Curve during a trial run.

Art Slaughter Country Club's New President

Art Slaughter has been elected president of the Escanaba Golf and Country Club.

Other officers named for the 1964 season were John Boyle, vice president, and Ed Larche, secretary-treasurer. Al Kidd was named to the board of directors.

Slaughter announced that Pro Jim Crichton will return in that capacity in 1964.

Committee chairman for the coming season are W. J. Lavette, finance and budget; F. C. Boyce, grounds; Forrest Henslee, house; Don Scott, golf; Matt Smith, rules and etiquette; Warren Lee, membership, Mr. and Mrs. Augie Brazeau, entertainment.

Hogan Isn't Sorry He Quit Pro Golf Circuit

NEW YORK (AP)—"I have no regrets," Ben Hogan said. "A man has to quit some time. I've never been sorry I stopped when I did."

The mushrooming $100,000-plus purses and the pressure of bigtime golf, intensified by the heavyweight duel between Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus no longer hold a lure for the tough little master from Fort Worth, Tex.

"If I could get some semblance of a putting stroke I would play in more tournaments, just for the pleasure of it," added Hogan, who was presented the Gold Tee Award Wednesday night by the Metropolitan Golf Writers Association.

"But I'm not eager to win any more championships, just for championships' sake."

Hogan insisted he never was haunted by the thought that he might have won an unprecedented fifth National Open championship, passing Willie Anderson and Bob Jones, had he not cut short his competitive career in 1955.

"If I had kept playing, I might have won another Open, and again I might not," he said. "As far back as 1953, my best year, I could tell I was beginning to lose my nerve in putting."

"That convinced me it was time to call it quits. I got to a point I couldn't even bring the club back on the putting green."

Hogan announced his retirement after losing a playoff to Jack Fleck in the 1955 Open at San Francisco, saying at the time:

"I'll never work this hard again to win a tournament."

At that time, Ben had won four U.S. Opens, two Masters plus the British Open and the PGA. His 72-hole records in the Open and Masters still stand.

At 51, Hogan looks as lean and hard as in his best playing days but he insists he is plagued by the bugaboo of all aging golf champions - the putting yips.

Hornung, a Green Bay Packers' star before he was suspended April 17, 1963, for betting, said his fall from grace was especially long and painful - not merely because he had been at the top but because "I made the terrible mistake" which caused the fall.

Hornung said he was grateful to the NFL Players Association for urging that the suspension be lifted.

League Commissioner Pete Rozelle placed Hornung and Alex Karras, of Detroit, on an indefinite suspension, saying their conduct and attitude "will have a bearing on the matter if I choose to consider lifting the suspensions after the 1963 season."

"This has been my first time away from the sport in 17 years," said Hornung, "and I'm itching to get back in the league and to start practice at Green Bay."

One of Nisenson's baskets tied the score at 57-57, but Army went ahead to stay on goals by Joe Kosciuszko of Grafton, Mass., and Bill Helkie, of South Bend, Ind.

There were only a few other major games on the schedule as mid - year exams continued to keep college activity to a minimum.

Seventh - ranked Villanova, the only team in the Top Ten to see action, romped against West Chester, Pa. State, 78-61.

Jim Stone and John Thompson combined for 52 points as Providence stayed off a late Canisius rally to beat the Grif-fins 77-74. In other games Virginia Tech nipped East Carolina 72-68 and Pitt downed Kent State 84-63.

Hornung Waits Rozelle's Word

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Although other business interests have kept him active, Paul Hornung said today, "I've missed football very, very much."

Awaiting a review of his National Football League suspension case next month, Hornung said he is hopeful the indefinite ban on his playing will be lifted.

Hornung, a Green Bay Packers' star before he was suspended April 17, 1963, for betting, said his fall from grace was especially long and painful - not merely because he had been at the top but because "I made the terrible mistake" which caused the fall.

Former Tigers Get Chance

BOSTON (AP) — Nine former Detroit Tigers received votes in the Hall of Fame balloting Wednesday, four of the group getting enough support to make the second ballot being mailed today.

The four among the top 30 were pitchers Hal Newhouse, Bobo Newsome, and Tommy Bridges and third baseman George Kell. Kell got 33 votes, Newhouse 26, Newsome 17, and Bridges 15.

The other five were pitcher Fred Hutchinson and first baseman-outfielder Rudy York, 10 each; pitcher Virgil Trucks 4, pitcher Art Houtteman 2, and pitcher Dizzy Trout 1.

Hall Of Fame Door Is Open To 30 Players

BOSTON (AP) — The door of that handsome, red brick Colonial building at Cooperstown, N.Y. — baseball's Hall of Fame — still was open today.

And shortstop Luke Appling and pitcher Charley Red Ruffing will lead 50 former big leaguers in an unprecedented second knock.

Balloting by baseball writers announced Wednesday showed none of the 59 old-time players nominated received the necessary 75 per cent of the votes cast.

Appling, who played 20 seasons for the Chicago White Sox between 1930 and 1950, received 142 votes, nine short of the 151 needed.

Right-hander Ruffing, who won 20 games or more four straight years while with the New York Yankees, polled 141.

But they and 28 others will get another chance.

The Baseball Writers Association of America instituted a change in 1962, the last time the biennial voting was conducted, authorizing a second ballot in the event no candidate received the needed three-quarters vote.

A second ballot was not needed two years ago because Bob Feller and Jackie Robinson were elected to Cooperstown on the first ballot.

Feller and Robinson are the only two former players to have been enshrined since Joe Cronin and Hank Greenberg made it in 1956.

Hy Hurwitz, secretary of the BBWAA, said ballots were being mailed to voting members today. The writers will vote for no more than five players from among Wednesday's 30 top vote-getters. Hurwitz set a Feb. 5 deadline for the return of the ballots.

Unless there's a tie, only one player from the 30 now eligible will be admitted to the Hall of Fame.

Others among the 30 include Roy Campanella, Ducky Medwick, Pee Wee Reese, Lou Boudreau, Al Lopez, Chuck Klein, Johnny Mize and Mel Harder.

mission to move the A's to Louisville and has until Feb. 1 to negotiate a lease with the city or face possible expulsion from the American League.

Despite all that uncertainty, the A's home office managed to conduct some business. They are working on the 1964 roster, and signed pitcher Diego Segui and infielder George Williams. They were the first A's signed.

Presumably, they signed Kansas City contracts.

The New York Yankees were the busiest club in the player market, signing infielders Pedro Gonzalez and Mike Hegan and pitchers Jack Cullen and George Schoenmaker. The Los Angeles Angels received contracts from pitchers Don Lee, Fred Newman and Aubrey Gatewood.

Pitchers Cal Koonce and Jack Warner and outfielder Don Landrum signed with the Chicago Cubs, pitchers Tracy Stallard and Bill Wakefield with the New York Mets, second baseman Don Blasingame with the Washington Senators and pitcher Wade Blasingame with the Milwaukee Braves.

Charles Finley Isn't Talking

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles O. Finley isn't talking.

And that is the big news in baseball circles.

The surprise development came Wednesday when Finley, embattled owner of the Kansas City Athletics, and American League President Joe Cronin were found registered in the same New York hotel. If they met, it was a deep, dark secret.

Finley made himself available briefly and had only two words to say:

"No comment."

That was two words more than anyone could get out of Cronin.

His hotel phone didn't answer. And a search of the hotel failed to reveal any traces of the stocky AL prexy.

Tuttle Paces Pro Keglers

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Tommy Tuttle of Rural Hall, N. C., took a commanding lead in the first day of finals at the $100,000 All-Star Bowling Tournament Wednesday night.

The personable newcomer won 12 and lost four games while knocking down 3,631 pins in the opening four rounds. He received a 600-pin bonus, 59 for each game he won, to boost his position to 4,231.

Tuttle's best performance of the day came in the third round when he walloped a 258-256-181-225 — 930 series to defeat Don Ellis of Houston, Tex., in three games.

Luke Barlow of Hobbs, N. M., was in second place as the tournament moved into the fifth round with a total of 3,943 pins, a reflection of his record of 12 won and four lost and his total pine fall of 3,343.

Barlow moved from third place into the runner - up spot after winning three of his four games with Dick Weber, the defending champion from St. Louis.

Weber, who was in second place going into the round, dropped to fifth place.

Norma Lake of Dallas and Laverne Carter of St. Louis were deadlocked for the women's lead after four rounds with identical grand totals of 1,871.
